If you've watch the episode of George goes bowling on PBS, it's pretty much line for line. It's entertaining with the flaps and my toddler gets excited to be the one to flip them to reveal what's next. Good book, but since each page is multiple sentences, a toddler may get anxious to turn the page before you're done. 2 people found this helpful

My 2-year-old son has recently become obsessed with bowling and there are very few children's books about bowling. This book has been great! He loves bowling and loves Curious George. We read it every night at bedtime and recite it several times throughout the day. The lift the flap design was a welcome surprised to make the book a little more interactive. Since it is a paperback book, I doubt ...

When the Man in the Yellow Hat leaves his lucky bowling ball behind on the night of the bowling championship, George works hard to get it to him before the competition starts.

Mitchell, who loves to knock things down, goes bowling for the first time with his father, but he discovers that getting a strike isn't as easy as his dad makes it look.

Curious George and his friend are going on vacation on an airplane. At check-in, the ticket clerk gives George a toy airplane to play with, but he soon loses it and has a few adventures trying to find it again. What an exciting start to his vacation! Learning concepts: modes of transportation Level one in Houghton's new Curious George reader line means that the text is minimal and simple, perfect for readers learning to sound out words while looking at the art for visual clues.

When Fox shows up with the now good-as-new, ficolli-oi radio that Franklin had thrown out, Franklin regrets his decision to let it go. But when Fox gives it back to him, Franklin's initial joy gives way to a not-quite-right feeling. Did Franklin make another mistake?

From the author of the beloved classic Where the Red Fern Grows comes a timeless adventure about a boy who discovers a tree full of monkeys. The last thing fourteen-year-old Jay Berry Lee expects to find while trekking through the Ozark Mountains of Oklahoma is a tree full of monkeys. But then Jay learns from his grandpa that the monkeys have escaped from a traveling circus, and there's a big reward for the person who finds and returns them. His family could really use the money, so Jay sets off, determined to catch them. But by the end of the summer, Jay will have learned a lot more than he bargained for—and not just about monkeys. From the beloved author of Where the Red Fern Grows comes another memorable adventure novel filled with heart, humor, and excitement. Honors and Praise for Wilson Rawls' Where the Red Fern Grows: A School Library Journal Top 100 Children's Novel An NPR Must-Read for Kids Ages 9 to 14 Winner of 4 State Awards Over 7 million copies in print! "A rewarding book . . . [with] careful, precise observation, all of it rightly phrased."—The New York Times Book Review "One of the great classics of children's literature . . . Any child who doesn't get to read this beloved and powerfully emotional book has missed out on an important piece of childhood for the last 40-plus years."—Common Sense Media "An exciting tale of love and adventure you'll never forget."—School Library Journal

Bowling Pin's have feelings, too, in this funny, uplifting and overcoming story of the pin who felt alone because he couldn't seem to do what all the other pins did - fall. Poor Pinny just wants to fit in. He is tired of being the last bowling pin standing, making it nearly impossible for kids to bowl a strike. Everyone dislikes the last pin, the lone pin, the one who won't fall no matter how many others do. As if it isn't bad enough that the kids don't like him, even the other pin's don't! He is making them look bad after all. But maybe, Pinny wasn't meant to fit in? Maybe he was meant for something greater! Perhaps a doctor, a rockstar, or even the President! Kids will be imagining their own humorous occupations for Pinny, and sharing a laugh with the lovable character and the author who finally revealed the truth behind the bowling pins lives. This story is a perfect gift for anti-bullying, for a reminder to kids to never give up, and for those who just want to know why it's so difficult to bowl a strike!

The Man with the Yellow Hat brings home a birthday present for a friend, and in an effort to distract George and prevent him from opening the gift, the man gives George an orange to "unwrap." The curious monkey discovers that there are many other things to unwrap besides presents (like the bathroom walls with their peeling wallpaper!), but maybe not all of them can be unwrapped. Full-color activities: a matching and twenty questions game, a birthday idea space, and a think-more-about-it section.

"Cat Duran and her friends are suspicious when their classmate, a champion bowler, only bowls gutter balls during a bowling field trip."

The Bowling Buddies—Diego, Emilia, and Barnaby—have their hearts set on bringing home Brookstonia's Best of the Best Youth Tournament trophy this year. But first they have to qualify to represent their bowling center. If the Bowling Buddies can make it past qualifying, the Strikers are their biggest competition. Dan, Desiree, and Sherman are from a rival bowling center, have the newest equipment, best coaches, and are the Bowling Buddies' biggest enemies on the lanes. All the kids soon learn, however, the love of a sport can bring anyone together, even the fiercest of competitors.

In this Green Light Reader based on Curious George, the Emmy Award-winning PBS TV show, Curious George wants to build a treehouse, but first he has to make a plan!
