Book Review: Curating Worship - Building Faith

I just got my copy of The Art of Curating Worship and am enjoying it. Curation of worship is an approach to worship planning on a human scale. The author avoids both the "everything the Church has ever done is wrong" and the "Apply my model as I apply it

The idea of 'curating' rather than leading worship invites a potentially huge mind shift about worship practice. Leading worship is not about staying in control of content or delivery, but about exploring creatively the riches of our traditions, the arts, our buildings, music and language to offer worship that better reflects the glory of God.
