To Live Is Christ To

“ To live is Christ ” means that Christ is our focus, our goal, and our chief desire.

Christ is the center point of our mind, heart, body and soul. Everything that we do, we do for Christ ’ s glory. As we run the “ race marked out for us, ” we lay aside the entangling sin and worldly distractions, “ fixing our eyes on Jesus ” (Hebrews 12:1-2).

Using Paul's radical letter to the Philippians as his road map, Matt Chandler forsakes the trendy to invite readers into authentic Christian maturity.
The short book of Philippians is one of the most quoted in the Bible, yet Paul wrote it not for the popular sound bites, but to paint a picture of a mature Christian faith.
While many give their lives to Jesus, few then go on to live a life of truly vibrant faith. In this disruptively inspiring book,

Chandler offers tangible ways to develop a faith of pursuing, chasing, knowing, and loving Jesus. Because if we clean up our lives but don't get Jesus, we've lost! So let the goal be Him. To live is Christ, to die is gain—this is the message of the letter. Therefore, our lives should be lived to Him, through Him, for Him, with Him, about Him—everything should be about Jesus.

Examines the life of Paul the Apostle using Biblical passages and studies of ancient Jewish life in Biblical times and finds lessons of faith, humility, and self-sacrifice which modern Christians can apply to their own lives.

Instructions in life are good, but models are better. When it comes to living joyfully in spite of difficult circumstances, there is no better model than the apostle Paul. To Live Is Christ spends eight weeks learning how Paul rejoiced while in chains in prison—and how you can follow his example.

Philippians Study Guide

From the pulpit of Charles Spurgeon, the renowned British preacher, "For Me To Live Is Christ" joyously proclaims what it means to live wholly devoted to God's only Son. Spurgeon reminds readers that Christ's miraculous life ignited the miracle of God in us.

The people in the city of Philippi who received this letter from their friend, Paul, were suffering from two of Christianity's greatest adversaries: self-sufficiency and complacency. While writing this letter from a Roman prison cell, Paul was able to provide a unique perspective on these enemies of our faith. Even as he faced horrific trials, Paul continued to encourage his brothers and sisters by declaring that his imprisonment was reason for joy. This letter also includes Paul's concerns for the church regarding spiritual and practical matters, such as unity and false teachers. He urges the believers to maintain their spiritual commitment and integrity as well as to continue to grow in Christ. The MacArthur Bible Studies provide intriguing examinations of the whole of Scripture. Each guide incorporates extensive commentary, detailed observations on overriding themes, and probing questions to help you study the Word of God with guidance from John MacArthur.

Insightful and heart-warming, this classic book is written for those who seek to know God better. It unfolds life-impacting,

Now featuring new cover artwork, Beth Moore's popular book To Live Is Christ To Die Is Gain looks closely at the passionate and inspiring faith and life of the apostle Paul.

This is the story of a woman who was once part of church. She had served in various capacities for many years and was known as a prophet and a spiritual daughter by the apostle in that church. Then one day, her and her husband expressed some concerns and questions regarding some teaching in the body. That one action caused a cascade of events in a matter of a few months, resulting in her having to make one of the most difficult decisions of her life. After nearly two decades at this ministry, she would walk away from the only church she had ever known. The woman who had once been identified as a prophet became a nobody to the apostle. She was slandered and falsely accused of things that brought pain and despair, but God used this situation to show her the truth. She began to study the Word of God and became a disciple hungering and thirsting for righteousness. This is the story of the nonprophet. The purpose of this book is to draw attention to potential spiritual abuse and damaging behavior in the church. As you read this book, you will be challenged and empowered to search the Scriptures for yourself and to test things you may have been taught in the Charismatic church. As disciples of Jesus Christ, we are to test teachings and to discern properly according to the Word and the Holy Spirit. I pray this book does
